

FIRST STEPS ON WAY TO COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

City Council has Instructed the Commissioners to Define Inter-Relation of Council's and Commissioners Powers, and to Make a Report to Council.

The city council has talked often and long of that ideal state of civic government when the council has been purely legislative and the board of commissioners wholly executive, but it was not until last night that they took the first step to make this Utopian state of affairs a reality. And it was such a little thing, too, that brought the whole matter to a head. It was pointed out by the mayor that it would be necessary to appoint a special inspector to supervise the construction of the many buildings that are soon to be started at the exhibition grounds. And a report from the building inspector to this effect was also read.

"The building inspector has two much to do already," said the mayor. "It's the Commissioner's Work."

Then Ald. McInnis suddenly launched to his feet. His heard was fairly bristling, so great was his indignation.

"Here," cried he, "I think we ought to call a halt right here. What do we want to know about the building inspector. This work should be done by the commissioners. It's a detail of general work that we have decided must be done, and we don't want to hear of it at all."

"There's altogether too much of these details being sent to us to decide. What are the commissioners' good for? All this sort of work ought to be done below and we should never hear of it," and the speaker pointed dramatically toward the floor. No doubt he was indicating the commissioners' offices, which are situated immediately below the council chamber.

"I agree with Ald. McInnis," declared Ald. Gariepy. "We have been wasting about half our time tonight on questions of this nature; that the commissioners should be decided."

"Yes," suggested Ald. Henderson, "while we are at it, let's have some trouble."

To Define Powers of Council

"I think the time has come," continued Ald. Gariepy, "for us to define in writing the inter-relationships that should exist between the council and the commissioners, and the commissioners and the various departments. This very thing has been the cause of most of the trouble during the past twelve months. Now let's get the whole thing on a working basis. If necessary we can see how they work in Montreal or Toronto. I move that the commissioners take up this matter and report to us. It may take several weeks but it must be done. As it is now the heads of various departments come to the aldermen and ask us to support some report or others. We don't want that sort of thing going on. It isn't business-like."

Ald. McInnis thought Ald. Gariepy had the right idea. "But he's got the cat in front of the horse," he declared. "It's not the commissioners that should say what they are to do. We should say that."

"My idea," explained Ald. Gariepy.

GREAT CROWDS COMING

Forty Special Trains Required to Handle C.P.R. Business.

Montreal, April 27.—Vice-President Bosworth of the C.P.R. announced that the company now has steamers en route to Canada carrying 6,608 passengers and 22,000 tons of freight. To handle this traffic forty special trains would be required. Prospects for the season's business were never better.

ONTARIO BONDS SOLD

Issue of $3,500,000 Has Been Disposed of in Canada.

Toronto, April 27.—The bonds for the last dollar of the government $3,500,000 loan for the construction of the Hydro-Electric power transmission line have been sold and paid for, according to an announcement made by the provincial treasurer, Hon. J. A. Mahon.

He added that no special terms had been granted and that the closing days of the period during which the bonds were offered were characterized by a rush on the part of investors who had evidently been hoping that there would be special terms offered.

"Now, even if the provincial engineer puts no obstacles in our way, we cannot go ahead with the extension of our plant until we learn where the water supply is to come from. If the city continues to grow at the present rate, the present water supply system will be outgrown in four years. And it will take two years to complete a perfect water supply system."

Two Ways to Get Water

"The present intake pipe will be located below a drainage outlet pipe if the city grows to the west. So that there are two plans, to take the present intake pipe further up stream, or else to get the water supply from Pigeon Lake."

Mr. Potter then pointed out how the question of sewage disposal is affected by the water supply, and also showed how thorough investigation into the Pigeon Lake scheme would have to be made before it could be decided on permanently.

WANTED TO MARRY WIDOW

Admits in Cross-Examination That He Confessed Because Mrs. Matthews Had Disappointed Him.

Horrible details of the murder in which he declares he was a partner were given by James Chapman, colored, this morning in the District Court where the action for his extradition to the State of Oklahoma is now going on. Chapman confessed his share in the crime to the R.N.W. M.P. some time ago, and was willing to stand his trial in the United States without a hearing here. Mrs. Matthews, widow of the victim, whom Chapman accused of having assisted him in the crime, stoutly declares his innocence and is fighting extradition. Therefore the whole story of the crime which is alleged to have been committed on December 31, 1906, has been gone over in the court here.

Under examination by E. H. Cogswell, representing the state of Oklahoma, Chapman yesterday told his story of the crime. He said that he had procured a six-ounce phial of strychnine for Mrs. Matthews, that she gave it to her husband but that the effect of the overdose was that the deadly poison did not do its work. A second dose, Chapman declares, was given on the night of December 31. He failed to take immediate effect, said Chapman, so Mrs. Matthews tried to smother her husband in the bed clothes. The unfortunate man broke away and ran down stairs to try to secure an antidote for the poison. When he was called in, Chapman said that he found Matthews lying on the floor of his dining room in his night shirt. He (Chapman) had placed his hands over the mouth and nose of the dying man until he was extinct. Then he said the corpse was dressed in working attire and placed under the feet of the mules so as to give the impression that the man had been kicked to death.

This morning Mr. Robertson continued the cross-examination of Chapman.

TOFIELD HAD CLOSE SHAVE

Incendiary Fire Threatened Total Destruction This Morning.

EIGHT STORES WERE BURNED

Citizens Had a Hard Fight on Sunday to Save Town From Prairie Fires.

Tofield, Alta., April 27.—Tofield was nearly fire-swept this morning by the second holocaust in its history. It burned half a block on Main street, between Third and Main street, and between Third and Main street. The loss is twenty thousand dollars, as follows: Harper and Letourneau, $4,000; T. Chinnick, $200; M. W. Ferguson, harness shop, $3,000; J. O. Letourneau, $2,500; Miss Kilner, restaurant, $1,000; Mrs. Letourneau, millinery, $500; A. P. Fugl, hardware, $1,500; Walter Belland, $500; Robert Logan, $2,500.

The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. Fortunately the air was calm and the herculean efforts of the volunteer fire department, supported by the citizens, saved a large portion of the business section that would otherwise have been destroyed.

The volunteer fire brigade and an army of seventy men saved the town Sunday afternoon from being destroyed by bush and prairie fires raging west of the town.

Candidate for Senate.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 27.—Thos. Taggart, Democratic national committee man, has formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the United States senate.

Wireless at Regina.

Regina, April 27.—Dr. De Forest, vice-president of the Radio Telegraph and Telephone Company, has applied to the city for a site on which to erect a wireless station.

Smallpox at Cabot.

Cabot, Ont., April 27.—This town is excited over an epidemic of smallpox and extraordinary measures are being taken to check the disease. The nine managers have unanimously agreed to put quarantine regulations into effect on every mile. The board of health has ordered all theatres, schools, churches closed for fourteen days. There are twenty cases in the isolation hospital. People are flocking to the doctors to get vaccinated.

ISLAND WILL STAND ALONE

Newfoundland will Never Join Canadian Confederation.

PREM. MORRIS' STATEMENT

Declares Canada Can Offer No Inducement to Her to Sacrifice Her Independence.

New York, April 27.—The annexation of Newfoundland either to the United States or to Canada is a visionary project, according to Sir Edward Morris, premier of the Island, who expressed this view at a dinner in his honor given by his countrymen at the Hoffman House last night, previous to his departure to attend the fisheries conference at The Hague.

"While a very decided friendliness exists between Newfoundland and the American people," said the premier, "thousands of Newfoundlanders have found homes in this Republic, the people are absolutely loyal to the British crown. There is no annexation sentiment whatever in the island and as far as confederation with Canada, there is less prospect of that than ever. Canada has nothing to offer Newfoundland which could tempt her to sacrifice her independence to become a mere province of the Dominion."

CANADIAN GIRL MURDERED

Body Found is Believed to Be That of Stella Reid.

Milan, Italy, April 27.—Latest police investigations point to the nude body of a girl found in the Bay of Naples being that of Stella Reid, a clever Canadian water-color painter. From the state of the body the police advance the hypothesis that the lady during her last visit to Capri was beguiled by some interviewer, drugged and flung into the sea, the clothing having been stripped off so as to make identification less easy. The authorities have ordered a post-mortem examination.

GREAT WRITER DEAD

Bjornsterne Bjornsen, Norwegian Poet and Novelist, Passes Away.

Paris, April 27.—Bjornsterne Bjornsen, Norwegian poet, novelist and dramatist, reformer and advocate of universal peace, died here last night surrounded by his family. The end was peaceful. The illness of the novelist extended over nearly a year. He was brought to Paris in the early part of last November for special treatment. In Paris, however, he was unable to receive treatment for the malady from which he was suffering, but notwithstanding this, he showed marked improvement for a time due to his wonderful vitality.

Labor Men Will Run.

Winnipeg, April 27.—Labor men say that at least two of the three Winnipeg seats will be contested by the Labor party at the next provincial elections.

WILL APPEAL TO ASSEMBLY

Presbyterian Synod Wants Theological College.

HON. W. H. CUSHING'S PROMISE

Rev. Mr. Miller Reports That Former Minister Promised University Would Never Be Moved.

At the evening session of the Presbyterian synod, Rev. Mr. Romanes of Calgary delivered a most interesting address on "The Layman's View of Preaching." Rev. Mr. Romanes said that he came from a country accustomed to criticizing, especially things of a clerical nature, and therefore he must excuse if any of his criticisms seemed to be severe. The minister who applied himself in his sermons to the rising generation found the old men nodding in their pews; and on the other hand to preach to the elder portion of the congregation about the near approach of death and the life to come, failed to attract the younger portion. Then again there were so many people of different religions that found the Presbyterian Church the nearest to their own—it was a marvel that among the fresh graduates there were not some failures, but more failures.

The easy sermon to preach was that which pointed out the sins of the congregation; but this should never form more than part of a sermon. The grosser sinners did not frequent churches and the congregation did not like to be accused of sins of which they were innocent. In the ideal congregation everyone should have some work to do and the sermon should not be a "wild blast of the trumpet" but a gentle voice calling men to be up and doing something for the good of their fellow-men.

The Temperance Question.

On the subject of temperance, Mr. Romanes said there were two views generally accepted, the "laissez faire" attitude and "abolition." The first he hoped had passed for ever and the second had proved a failure. The only solution he could see to the problem was to place the whole trade in the hands of the state, the profits to go to the support of counter attractions to the saloon, and so do away

FIRST ESTIMATES MADE FOR ATHABASCA RAILWAY

James Woodman, the Original Engineer, was a Witness Before the Royal Commission at Winnipeg To-Day — C. S. Tupper Not Able to Attend.

Winnipeg, April 27.—The Alberta and Great Waterways Railway Commission resumed its sitting this morning in the Grain Exchange. A full attendance of the commissioners was present. Mr. John Woodman, consulting engineer and a member of the original syndicate, was on the witness stand all the forenoon and was submitted to a sharp examination by Mr. L. M. Johnston, associate counsel for the Commission, and Mr. H. H. Parlee on behalf of the opposition to the government guarantee of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway. Mr. Woodman told at length of having been a surveyor of the proposed railway made and having estimated the cost at $15,200 a mile completed. The provincial government was to be asked to guarantee the road's bonds to the extent of $13,000, the bonds to be sold in 1907. He told of how in 1907 the Alberta government had declined to do so.

Mr. Woodman told of having to place his account for professional services given to W. R. Clarke in the hands of Messrs. Munson, Allan, Laird and Davis for collection, the original amount claimed being $18,500. A settlement was made for $15,000.

Charles Stewart Tupper was to have been the first witness but J. S. Tupper explained that he was engaged in a case at the court house and could not attend. Mr. Tupper said his son would be on hand tomorrow to give evidence. Mr. Walsh, K.C., on behalf of the Commission accepted the explanation.

Was Not Over the Country.

Mr. John Woodman was the first witness called and was examined by Mr. Johnston. He said he was a member of the Athabasca railway syndicate and signed the original agreement. Mr. Minty first approached him to take shares in the syndicate. The first meeting was held in 1906. Messrs. Parsons, Minty, Emmerson, Sutherland and Hawes were present at that meeting. Witness said he had never seen the minutes of the meeting. Mr. Woodman said that he was to get shares as part of his pay for his engineering advice. He understood that Mr. J. K. Cornwall was the incorporator of the proposed railway. Witness said he prepared a statement of the probable cost of the road but he had never been over the country through which the road was to run.

Mr. Woodman produced his original report on the railway and also all the communication he had concerning the Athabasca railway and informed the Commissioners that he had no objection to them seeing them. Mr. Johnston read Mr. Woodman's report, which showed that he had estimated the cost of the first hundred miles from Edmonton to Fort McMurray at $51,200. This he pointed out was exclusive of legal expenses of organization, the cost of special bridges, tunnelling, etc., at Edmonton. The witness in his report continued:

Shackleton to Explore Canada

Toronto, April 27.—A strong inclination to settle in Canada and engage in the exploration of the great stretches of land in the north and northwest possesses Sir Ernest Shackleton, the famous explorer. With a decided disavowal of his intention to move back into the navy or even to take a hand in the formation of a Canadian navy, he expressed his desire as soon as he goes through with his present affairs in connection with the expedition on which he reached a point ninety-seven geographical miles from the South Pole, to come and settle down in this country, where he says there are great things for a man to do in twenty-five years. His idea is to organize a corps of trained mountaineers, who are accustomed to rough work, but at the same time are experienced in scientific exploration, to carry on a series of rapid surveys. In these they would discover the real value of the different regions of the Dominion which are still scarcely scratched over and make reports of forests and minerals.

will be Manning and Stanley.Calgary, April 26.—Both morning and afternoon Manager Bill Carney had his baseball boys out working to beat the band. For two hours at each practice the players went through a lunch of work, including batting, running, base throwing and fielding.The team are feeling the effects of the weather, and the high altitude, which athletes experience while training for it the first few days. Carney says the work will soon get the tired feeling out of their systems and then the team will have the pep and ginger for fighting cocks.Yesterday Carney decided to give the semi-pros, a battery for the game
on Wednesday evening. Ed Geelan, and Pete Standridge will be out pitching for the semi-pros, and Pop
Gouchee will receive behind the bat.
Manning and Crist will pitch for the readers with Stanley receiving, and this will make the game interesting and more even. It will also give the regulars some good batting practice as Geelan and Standridge will throw over everything to beat their team mates.Carney received a letter from Catcher, Ward from Regina asking if Bill could make a place. Ward is some catcher at that, but Bill cannot just figure out where he would come in with such men as Stanley, Manning
and Pop Gouchee on the list.

Sympathy for the Working Man
—"Gimme Dot Contract."Before the season opened last year baseball fans were discussing the refusal of "Hans" Wagner to sign for another year. The late Harry Pullman made a visit to Pittsburgh to see the big German. Mr. Pullman finally folded up the blank contract and put it away in his pocket, with the remark:
"I'm sorry, Hans. A lot of other people will be sorry too."
"Huh!" sniffed Wagner."Oh, it isn't Dreyfus," said Pullman. "There are other people who feel worse over your going than Barney."
"What people?" asked Hans, innocently."Why, a lot of fellows who work in the mills around Pittsburgh," said Pullman. "Those men work hard, Hans,
every day in the week, and they don't get much money, either. But when Saturday comes those fellows are all out on the ball park—the bleachers.
About the only fun those fellows have in life is to get out to the ball park
on Saturday afternoon and see Hans Wagner hit that ball. . . . it will be kind of tough if they miss that, won't it?" "Yes. The only bright spot in the week.""Hey!" broke in Hans, gruffly.

will prove to be a very short but fierce

Mr. Johnson will experience some great bereavement, much grief and much to contend with, their health will greatly need their attention and their lives will be in jeopardy during

BOTH MILLS AND WILLARD MADE GOOD

Visitors Have Not Practised This Season and Were at a Disadvantage—McLair and Samuels Were in Mid-Season Form—The Kid Got Seven Strike-Outs—Edmonton Team Fielded in Faultless Style—Same Teams Play This Evening—Clareholm Will Have an Edmonton Battery.Well, Well, Well! They surely shape up like base running clubs, do those Eskimos. Yesterday they touched up Pitcher Ardell, of Clareholm, for eleven hits of which Mills got a twobagger and a triple, and Dutch Lassi, a double and a home run. Interspersed with wild pitches and charities at the hands of the generous M. Ardell, the locals annihilated the respective total of 16 runs while their opponents'
score was indicated by a row of zeros.It is only fair to the visitors to state that this was their initial appearance this season and they were at a decided disadvantage. Today they will be reinforced by a battery loaned them by Deacon White, and should do a whole lot better. The Eskimos played with great confidence, and when on bases ran like the wind. Their piling was greatly aided by Ardell's wildness.The cold weather out did not add to the comfort of the fans or players
but interest never relaxed in the game, as everybody was anxious to see our new men work out.As stated before, Mills and Lassi carried off the cheering honors, while the former also played a nice game on third. Brennan was on hand with a perfect batting average of 1.000.
Moose and Samuels were the only locals failing to hit safely and Baxter in his five times up, had two sacrifice hits, and a charity.In the field, Willard was the pick of the bunch. He looks like a real good catcher, and holds up the pitchers in faultless style. Only one base was stolen on him, and the throw was just a trifle high. Willard looks every bit as good as a hardballer, and has a shade at the bat. The only misplays were made by McLair and had no effect on the score. Just here we might suggest that a field captain be appointed immediately. Twice, Mills and Willard let a foul fly drop harmlessly between them, all for the sake of somebody to call whose ball it was.The visitors have several good men on their line-up. Hisler, is really a good catcher but could not work to advantage on account of Ardell's wildness. Amundson in centre field, with off a couple of nice catches, and taking them on the whole, they should do much better this evening.First innings—Simpson, struck out, and Moose, who was caught in stealing, Willard to Brennan. Moffat fanned and Gage lofted to Moose. No runs.Edmonton—Mills tripled and scored on Olsen's single to right, which was stretched into three bases on overthrow. Baxter fanned, and Oley cantered in on a passed ball. Moose walked, stole second and made third on a wild pitch, scoring on Brennan's single to right. Willard walked and Lassi was hit by pitched ball. Jack Brennan tried to score on a squeeze play but was caught cold at the plate.
Gage doubled to centre and Moose and Lassi scored. Samuels lofted to Moffat and ended the agony. Five runs.Second Innings. Reynolds and His-ler were out on flys to Olsen and Mills while Samuels and Moose disposed of Ardell.
Edmonton—This was a terrible innings. Everybody batted and Mills made two trips to the plate. This promising youngster started the ball rolling with a single past short stop and promptly stole second. He went to third on a wild pitch. Olsen fanned and Baxter walked. Moose was hit by a pitched ball, and Moose moved to second. Lassi then stepped up to the plate and hit a nice two sacker on which Mills and Baxter scored. Pete romped in on Brennan's sacrifice fly.
Willard walked, and Gage, Lassi
and Samuels were hit by the pitcher, but Mills grounded out, Ardell to Heck. Four runs.Third Innings. Hayne out; Brennan, struck out, and then Mac
hit Moffat and Gage. But nothing
further happened, as Reynolds fanned,
and Hisler grounded out. No runs.Edmonton—Mills out, Ardell to Heck. Olsen fanned and Baxter got a life on Reynolds's error. Moose pushed one past short stop, and Moose
who had moved to second on the error,
scored. Lassi walked, and Moose was caught off second by Gage. One run.Sixth Innings. The first man up, Simpson, struck out, and then Mac
hit Moffat and Gage. But nothing
further happened, as Reynolds fanned,
and Hisler grounded out. No runs.Edmonton—Mills out, Ardell to Heck. Olsen fanned and Baxter got
a life on Reynolds's error. Moose
pushed one past short stop, and Moose
who had moved to second on the error,
scored. Lassi walked, and Moose was caught off second by Gage. One run.Seventh Innings. McLair fanned Ardell and Hayne in fine style but Heck singled to right and stole second. Willard's throw being a trifle high, Amundson walked, and Moose slid to Gage, a nice catch. No runs.
Gage called on account of darkness.

in a Silk O'Laughlin, and there were few complaints.The attendance was not large but extremely classy. Several well-known voices were wafted across from the bleachers.Willard, our new catcher, is a dead ringer for Bill Carrigan, the star backstop of the Boston Speed Boys. Willard looks very promising and will be extremely hard to say which is the better, Burridge or him.Lee Samuels shape up as the coming star of the league. He took things easy yesterday, but now and again
tore off a curved ball, that had the visiting batsmen groping in the dark.McIntee got a try out yesterday morning but will not make the team. The pitching staff is over-strength at present but the "weeding out" will not take place until the flin-gers get tried against the Western Canada teams.The fans should turn in strength to witness this evening's game. The Edmonton club is under heavy expense, bringing the Clareholm team to the city and should come out even on the deal. Turn out and root.Water pipes were laid to Diamond park yesterday, and the groundsman will now have an opportunity to get the diamond in shape.That was a funny play in the third innings when Pete Morse scored closely followed by Lassi. The visitors took several minutes to recover from their aerial ascension.Jack Brennan had a nice record yesterday. Two hits out of twice at bat, drew a base on balls, and made a sacrifice fly. He also stole a base and had a perfect fielding average.Moose was there with the hunting stuf. Two nice sacrifices, both of which he nearly beat out.Lassi should bat well over three hundred, if the free cagers don't affect his batting eye. Deacon figures it out that if Carney has five men in the charmed circle, Edmonton will have nine.Gage makes a good utility man. He is a safe fielder and had a nice two bagger to his credit yesterday.Summary—Bases on balls, off Ardell

Proved Superior—Teams Meet
Again This Evening.Before a large crowd the two teams of Callies, A, and B, met at the Exhibition grounds on Monday evening.
The score was 2 to 0 in favor of the Bees. The line-up was:Callies A—Orr, Roxbury, McKenzie, Johnstone, Torrance, Cowan, Christie,
Wright, Finlay, Davis and Newman.
Callies B—Carse, McDonald, Bess,
Tod, Hunter, Risland, Gilmour, Rice,
Hope, Murdoch and Irvine.Both teams put up a much improved game, especially the winners.
For a new bunch of players they are coming strong. J. Hope was noticed on Monday playing against his old team mates, the A bunch. He was in a new position and from the way he scored two goals, looks like the man for centre. The half backs on the B team held the feet opposing forwards
well in hand, and from their present form are very likely to put over something on the other teams on the league.
The two goal victory for the B team represented the difference between the two teams.On Wednesday night the two teams met again and it is rumored around the B camp that they intend to increase their lead.The line up for Wednesday will be:
B Team—Carse, McDonald, Brice,
Hunter, Torrance, Risland, Gilmour,
Murdoch, Hope, Cormack and Irvine.
A team—Orr, Roxbury, McKenzie,
Johnstone, Gillespie, Cowan, Christie,
Wright, Finlay, Tod, Davis.The kick off will be at 6 p.m. Players are requested to be on time tonight.JEFFRIES IN his Training.Ben Lomond, Calif., April 27.—Following the suggestion of Joe Chynski,

the new physical director at Camp Rowdennan, Jeffries today forsook his usual training schedule. If he can be prevailed upon to accept the schedule and advice of his handlers it will be several days before the gymnasium
and handball courts will be used again.
Jeffries has been annoyed during the last few days by a small eruption on his back, diagnosed by Chynski as indicating a serious disorder of the blood.
The trainers think Jeffries has been working too hard since he went into training and from now on his work will be regulated with greater symtem.

THE DAY IN STRATHCONA

Budget of News from the City on the South Bank of the River

The University final examinations in Applied Science commenced yesterday. They will be continued until Saturday, 30th. The finals in Arts commence on May 18th.

The members of the Synod met in Edmonton yesterday afternoon. After being shown through the University and Collegiate the members were driven out to the University grounds to see the work of construction on the new buildings. The work is proceeding apace on the dormitories and at Alberta College. At the latter the brick and cement work is being proceeded with all possible despatch. In the former the excavation is almost completed and the cement work will be proceeded with at once.

The members were well pleased with the work they saw at these grounds. They were then entertained to a banquet by the ladies of the Knox Church. Dr. T. D. T. addressed the meeting on the subject of "The Relation of the University to the Church."

Mr. W. E. Rankin of Millet was a passenger from the south yesterday. Mrs. Bradshaw and Olga arrived in the city from Calgary on yesterday's train.

Council Meeting.

Members present: Mayor, Aldermen Richards, Tipton, Bash, Pollard, Congdon, Donnan.

Communications—Bank of Ottawa, Edmonton, applying for information re sale of delinquent. Communication from Commissioner Burchart of Edmonton acknowledging the letter from the city of Strathcona regarding the pavement this year.

Accounts were then ordered to the amount of $224.41 to be paid.

A deputation was introduced from East Edmonton, Salisbury and Colchester regarding the building of a bridge on the Wye road. They called attention to the condition of the bridge over Mill creek, which necessitated the drawing of heavy loads many miles around in order to get over the stream. A petition was then read signed by many influential men of the district requesting that the attention of the council be directed to this matter.

Mr. T. B. Morrow addressed the council on this matter, pointing out the necessity of a better bridge along this road because the traffic along the road would warrant this.

Rice Sheppard spoke on behalf of the farmers of East Edmonton. He pointed out that the road along by Mill creek had not received proper attention. He said that the bridge would be most advantageous to Strathcona from a business standpoint, saying that this was one of the most important agricultural districts in the province. He wished the claims of the districts to be recognized by the council. He considered that a bridge on the Wye road would be more advantageous than the proposed Whyte avenue bridge.

Mr. Ball spoke on behalf of Salisbury. He mentioned the disgraceful condition of the bridge in the fall. He endorsed the action of the council in constructing the Whyte avenue bridge, but he asked that the Wye road bridge receive proper attention as well.

Mr. Frank Ball represented Colchester, and reiterated the necessity of the bridge on the Wye road.

Ald. Bash replied as chairman of public works committee. He said that the city had decided to build a bridge on Whyte avenue over Mill creek, and this would give facility to all the people in that district. Also that only one high level bridge over Mill creek could be built by the city. Furthermore, that the Wye road bridge would be made sale and the approaches were to be made so by proper fencing. The council would see that the bridge will be made perfectly safe for any reasonably heavy traffic such as threshing outfits, etc.

Ald. Richards' motion to tender a vote of thanks to the Edmonton fire brigade for their assistance at the fire on April 19th carried.

Ald. Congdon reported that regarding the brewery that discharges mains would be run along Saskatchewan avenue and that three-inch pipes would then supply the brewery.

Bylaw to prohibit heavy traffic on Saskatchewan avenue. Weight limit to be 12 tons, inclusive of both vehicle and load. This holds good from Fourth street east to Second street west during April, May, June, July, and August. The penalty not to exceed $50 exclusive of costs. The bylaw passed the third reading.

The council then retired in committee as a whole to discuss estimates for the year.

on the market site problem," said he.

Real Estate Men Air Troubles

A letter from the real estate firm of Lane and Scarth, protesting against the present bylaw dealing with the licensing of real estate firms was read. Mr. W. S. Candy was present, heading the delegation.

"I think it is very unusual, and I don't think that there is another city on the continent that asks each member of a partnership firm to pay a license," said Mr. Candy. "We have an easy way out of it, as we can bond the whole firm on the exchange, and then we would have to pay only one license."

Mr. Gilbert thought that the high license was working a hardship. "It is also very unfair," continued he, "in that it discriminates between an incorporated company, and a partnership firm. An incorporated firm only has to pay one license, whereas each member of a partnership firm has to pay separately. It does not seem fair."

Ald. Garvey moved that the city solicitor be instructed to bring down a report embodying an amendment to the present bylaw, so that one license would be required for every agent, for every genuine partnership firm, and every joint stock company.

Ald. Hyndman thought that a meeting should be held between a committee of the real estate men and the commissioners, and a report be presented next Tuesday evening. Ald. Mould agreed with this idea, and the motion carried.

with the evil of adulterated spirits. The saloon would then become a place of refreshment, not of amusement. In conclusion Mr. Romanes said that a minister's first duty was to raise men's thoughts to higher things and then the rest would change automatically. He must be thoroughly in earnest and convinced himself, otherwise he would never convince his hearers. This was the keynote to any great preaching.

Theological College.

The subject of a theological college to be established here was discussed. The Rev. Mr. Miller putting forth a fervent plea on its behalf. The chief reasons were on account of the growing population of Alberta and because so many people of all nationalities settling here. The other churches, he said, had recognized their responsibility. The Methodist had forty theological students today and next year they hoped to have sixty, and were showing the way to the Presbyterians, opportunity which must not be missed. Rev. Mr. Miller moved that an appeal for a college be sent to the General Assembly, which meets at Halifax on June 1st. The motion was carried.

man, making him at the end tell the story over again that he had told yesterday afternoon. On the stand Chapman said that when he went into the room where Mr. and Mrs. Mathews were at the time of the tragedy, he found Mrs. Mathews lying on top of Matthews, but he would not swear as to whether she was choking him or not, or even to the position of her hands. Matthews was groaning and struggling feebly, but the most noticeable thing was the way he was panting. Mrs. Mathews spoke to Chapman and he knelt down placing his hands over Matthews' mouth and nostrils, thereby finishing the crime. Then he dressed him in his working clothes and carried him out to the barn.

Chapman said he knew that the miles did not kick but the body was placed there in the hope that other people did not know that. After the inquest on the body of Matthews had been held, Chapman sold out and came to Canada, where he met Mrs. Mathews again.

Mr. Robertson: "Then everything was all right till you tried to force Mrs. Mathews to marry you?"

Chapman: "No, but the fact that she would not marry me was not the cause of all this trouble."

Mr. Robertson: "Then it was because you borrowed money on a cattle mortgage on false representations?"

Chapman: "Yes."

In continuing Mr. Robertson asked Chapman to repeat the conversation with Chief Lancy. "If you want everything brought out from start to finish," said Chapman, "I can tell all about it, but I have too much respect for Mrs. Mathews to wish to do so."

"Did you ask Chief Lancy to arrest Mrs. Mathews and force her to marry you?"

"No."

Mr. Robertson then tried to find out from Chapman why he had given himself up to the police. Chapman said that Mrs. Mathews had not kept all her promises to him.

Mr. Robertson: "Did she promise to marry you?"

Chapman: "Yes, but that was only one of her promises."

Chapman said that before he gave himself up he talked himsily, with tears in his eyes, to Mrs. Mathews, telling her that she had not treated him properly. Mrs. Mathews then told him that she could not marry him on account of her children who would not like it.

Mr. Robertson produced a letter written by Chapman to Mrs. Mathews before his confession in which he told her that he had said she would rather kill him than see him married to any other woman. After Chapman had told his story over again, the court adjourned till this afternoon.

PRESENT FOR MR. FIELDING

Liberal Members and Senators Give Him $100,000.

RECOGNITION OF SERVICES

Mr. Fielding's Devotion to Department has not Left him Time to Enrich Himself.

Ontario, April 27.—Liberal members of the House of Commons and Senate gathered last night for the purpose of presenting to Hon. W. S. Fielding a testimonial in the form of a handsome gift of money which the Minister of Finance was asked to accept as an evidence of public favor for the appreciation of his personal and public friends. The idea of recognizing Mr. Fielding's service to the country was suggested at the close of the last session of parliament by those of his friends who were aware that he had been for years engrossed in the work of conducting the affairs of his department as to have no time to give to his personal affairs and owing to the demands made upon him on account of his position, Mr. Fielding has few of this world's goods.

The suggestion was acted upon and a committee of senators, members of the commons and some influential gentlemen outside was formed for the purpose of receiving subscriptions for the testimonial. Although the subscription lists are not yet closed, the committee felt as the House is likely to be prorogued at an early date they would ask Mr. Fielding last night to accept the testimonial.

No announcement has been made as to the amount of the testimonial, but it is said to be slightly in excess of one hundred thousand dollars. This amount safely invested will make ample provision for Mr. Fielding and will relieve him of any worry as to how he is to provide for himself and family in the days when, owing to advancing years or a change in present fortunes it becomes incumbent upon him to relinquish the post of minister of finance.

Music Too Much for Her.

Chicago, April 27.—Stress of emotion occasioned by her husband's orchestra symphony yesterday afternoon produced an attack of temporary mental aberration in a well dressed woman at the Thomas orchestra concert in Orchestra Hall. While the "1812" was being played, the woman left her seat in the parquet and wandered to the foyer.

She displayed extreme nervousness, confessed that she did not know her name, and sharply ordered attendants of the house to keep away from her. She continually muttered to herself: "It's beautiful. It's beautiful. It's beautiful."

Toward the close of the concert she regained her self-possession and left the hall in the rain.

German Airship Fleet

Homburg, April 27.—The German airship fleet arrived about 4 o'clock this afternoon, a landing being made in a field outside the city. So soon as the squadron was sighted Emperor William entered an automobile and started for the landing place, which he reached before the airships descended.

Lieut. Gen. Baron Moritz von Lyncker, inspector general of the transportation of troops, and two officers of the general staff of the army, made the aerial trip from Cologne.

The emperor remained on the landing grounds for two hours, examining the aerial craft and conversing with the officers and engineers.

Mark Twain and the Comet.

New York, April 27.—A contributor to a newspaper here calls attention to the curious fact that Mark Twain's life was almost exactly coincident with the period of Halley's comet, as follows:

Mark Twain, born Nov. 30, 1835. Last perihelion of Halley's comet, Nov. 16, 1835.

Mark Twain died April 21, 1910. Perihelion of Halley's comet, April 20, 1910.

Toronto's Labor Troubles.

Toronto, April 26.—Over four thousand working men here are demanding an increase in wages from May 1st, when the agreements with the seven different unions expire. They are 600 painters, twelve hundred carpenters, twelve hundred street railway employees, four hundred plasterers, four hundred laborers, two hundred sheet metal workers, and one hundred and forty electricians.

Is Judaism Good Enough?

New York, April 27.—In reply to the request of Rev. Thomas M. Chalmers for a license to preach on the street for the purpose of converting Jews to Christianity, Mayor Gaynor has sent a letter declaring his belief that such "proselytizing is carrying evangelization too far."

"Do you not think the Jews have a good religion?" he writes, "and are not the Christians appropriated the entire sacred Scriptures? Was not the New Testament written entirely by Jews? Was not Jesus born of the Jewish race? Why should anyone who so hard to proselytize the Jew? I do not think I should give you this license. Would you not do the Jews more harm than good?"

Preacher's Hard Luck.

Hinsdale, N.D., April 27.—The Rev. Mr. Ellis, German minister at Rocky Point, Cal., arrived here last week on his way to Waburn, a village twenty-five miles west of here, where he was to take charge of a church.

While stopping here overnight one of his children took sick and died in a few hours. Friday morning his youngest, a girl of two years, also succumbed to diphtheria, and this evening his wife, who had been sent to the detention hospital, is near death.

On arrival here Ellis had only money enough to pay his travelling expenses, and today citizens subscribed $100 to help him out.

PRINCE HEADS BIG TRUST

German Financial Circles Exercised Over Its Increasing Power.

Berlin, April 27.—The increasing power of what is known as the "Princes' Trust," is exciting comment in financial circles. The head of the trust is Prince Maximilian Eugen zu Fürstenberg, one of the Kaiser's most intimate friends. He and Prince Christian Kraft zu Hohenlohe-Ochsenbrun have recently gone in to industrial enterprises on a large scale with the Deutsche Bank as their supporter. For a long time they have been trying to acquire the bulk of the shares of the General Berlin Omnibus Company, which controls to a large extent the city's traffic.

It is now learned that at a general meeting yesterday the trust secured $5,000,000 worth of shares, against the $10,000,000 worth held by the other stockholders. The trust already owns the biggest real estate company in Berlin, controls the Levant Steamship Company, which plies to the near East and owns numerous coal mines and several hotels. Its investments represent a capital of $27,500,000.

W. J. Bryn is an Elder.

Lincoln, Neb., April 27.—In the little Westminster Presbyterian church midway between Lincoln and Fairview, W. J. Bryn was formally ordained on Sunday and installed as an elder of that denomination.

The ordination was conducted by Rev. H. B. Conin, the pastor, before 300 persons—all the church would hold.

Mr. Bryn was elected an elder in March but yesterday was the first opportunity for his ordination. The sermon on the Mount formed the basis of Mr. Bryn's remarks following his ordination. He said he accepted the eldership because it imposed no new obligations to those which he, as a Christian, had accepted.

Zybsco Won the Bout.

New York, April 27.—Zybsco, the Polish wrestler, won from Mort Henderson, known as the northwest champion, in two straight falls at the Grand Central Palace last night.

LLOYD-GEORGE'S CHALLENGE

Dares Unionists and House of Lords to Throw Out Budget.

London, April 27.—Chancellor Lloyd George in the debate on the budget yesterday challenged the House of Lords and Unionist commoners to throw out the budget again if they dared.

"The government's position is perfectly clear," he said. "Their view is to present practically the same bill to the Lords as was rejected last year. The bill has been submitted to the country and has been accepted by the country." Opposition greeted his declaration with loud cries of "No, no," whereupon the chancellor retorted: "If the members say it has not, let them dare throw it out again."

Warning of revolution that threatens the British Empire was sounded by ex-Premier Balfour. Speaking on the budget he denounced "Sinister combinations," and declared their aim revolutionary. Though he made no direct reference it was understood he meant the Irish and Liberal combination.

Goddard out to make a reconnaissance of the line. His instructions to do so came from Mr. Clarke. Witness said that he understood Mr. Goddard's report was for Mr. Clarke's personal information. Mr. Goddard consulted Dr. Waddell in reference to his report. After he returned from his survey, he came to Winnipeg and sent on to Minneapolis to see Dr. Waddell and W. R. Clarke. Mr. Woodman said he was asked to come to Minneapolis to discuss Goddard's report but as he had only short notice and had not had time to go into the report he declined to do so. Witness only presented one report as to the estimate of cost. He had never seen Mr. Goddard's completed report. Mr. Woodman said he did not remember having commented on the legal expenses in connection with securing the right of way.

Mr. Minty's Statement

Before giving his evidence yesterday G. D. Minty asked to be allowed to make a statement. He said he was asked to go from Winnipeg to Edmonton to give evidence and he did so voluntarily. He took a large number of documents with him and submitted them to Mr. Walsh. When he went to Edmonton he expected to have his client there to give evidence, but he did not appear and, consequently he, (Mr. Minty) could do nothing but withdraw from the case. He left Edmonton, but before doing so, he wrote a letter to Mr. Walsh stating that in view of the fact that Mr. Clarke would not appear he saw no good reason for remaining in Edmonton but at the same time expressing his willingness to give evidence in Winnipeg. This letter was given to Mr. Walsh who was to submit it to the commission as an explanation of his absence. This he had apparently not done and instead of doing so, had said that he (Mr. Minty) was in contempt and should be arrested. This view was supported by Mr. Bennett who had said that Minty was a witness before court on subpoena. Mr. Minty charged that that was absolutely unfair and he was defamed from coast to coast for doing nothing more than an honorable man would do.

Mr. Minty also informed the Commission that he had given Mr. Walsh private papers for his own personal information and that he had put them before the Commission and had spread them broadcast. This he said, was very unfair and he wished to draw the Commission's attention to it. In conclusion Mr. Minty said he was there to give evidence voluntarily and would ask the protection of the court.

Where is W. R. Clarke?

Mr. Minty was then placed on the witness stand and on request of Mr. Walsh produced the first minute book of the Alberta & Great Waterways Railway Company, which was put in as an exhibit. This book, he said, together with one already filed, were the only minute books of the company. The minutes entered were the original ones and there were no others. Mr. Walsh asked if there were minute books of the Construction Company and Minty replied that there were but he had not had them with him nor were they in his possession since last Wednesday. As the firm had resigned all connection with the Waterways Railway and the Construction Company, and he had handed over the books to the president, B. R. Clarke, he was in Winnipeg last Wednesday and took over the books and had taken them away south with him. Minty claimed privilege for any documents that came into his possession as a solicitor for the Construction Company, and said he was so instructed by the company. Mr. Walsh said he was entitled to all the information he could get. The Commissioners said they would consider the point raised. Mr. Minty said he was only standing for his legal rights and he did not wish the impression to go out that he was concealing anything. In reply to Mr. Walsh, the witness said he did not know where W. R. Clarke was and declined to say when he last heard from Clarke. Mr. Walsh asked witness when Mr. Clarke had communicated with him and Minty said he had a telephone message from him but he did not know where he was starting for or when he would be in the city. In reply to counsel Minty said that Clarke's conversation with him was to the effect that he thought the Commission had exceeded the powers for which it was formed.

Mr. J. S. Tupper was next called and denied that he had any professional connection whatever with either of the two companies and only met Clarke once. While his firm were solicitors for the Canada West Construction Company, he had personally nothing to do with it. Documents produced in court were signed by his son, C. S. Tupper and not by himself. Mr. Walsh regretted that an error had been made in calling the witness which was accounted for by the fact that both gentlemen had the Christian name of "Stewart." Mr. Tupper was then excused.

Beer Flowed Freely.

St. Louis, Mo., April 27.—Fire of unknown origin caused a loss estimated at $530,000 in the mammoth plant of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association early today and for a time threatened the entire establishment with destruction. Five hundred thousand bottles of beer were destroyed, and millions of burning corks made such a dense smoke that the firemen fought the flames in a black smudge. Streets about the plant flooded with beer for more than an hour, and smoking corks hobbling up and down strange appearance.

Prayers for Aviators.

London, April 27.—An extemporaneous addition to the Anglican church liturgy was made at the service in the Lincoln parish church Sunday, when the vicar, Preliminary Bolton, conducting the litany, besought divine protection for those who travel by land, water or air. The interpolation was due to the presence of Graham White and his mother. The latter had expressed a wish to offer public thanks for her son's safety in his attempted flight from London to Manchester which stopped short yesterday at Lichfield.

Another Carnegie Library.

Owen Sound, Ont., April 27.—Owen Sound has been offered $25,000 for a free library by Andrew Carnegie.

About Town

The football match between the S.O. E. and 101st will take place tomorrow at Taylor Park, not at Exhibition grounds as previously stated.

The Gun Club will hold its first shoot for the season at seven o'clock tomorrow night at the old shooting grounds at Anderson's brick yards. All interested are welcome.

At the regular review of Edmonton High No. 1, Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, held last evening, a letter was read from Miss Nina M. West, supreme record keeper of this order. Miss West is looking forward with much pleasure to this, her first visit to Alberta. The member felt that in no way can they express their appreciation of her visit and show a more cordial welcome than by having a large membership class ready for her to receive into the order. It is certainly a rare honor to be received into the order by its distinguished founder. Eight applications for membership were received as a beginning to this class. Miss Marion Mackay of Queen's avenue school will drill a "guard team" for display work at the general meeting to be held in the Separate School Hall, Saturday evening, June 4th. Miss Mackay will hold a rehearsal in Maccabee Hall Friday evening, April 29th.

St. George's Society.

At the conclusion of Monday night's meeting, held at the Oddfellows' Hall under the presidency of A. W. Chaland, it was discovered that a telegraph message, presumably received from London, Ont., should have been worded of London, Eng., and read as follows: "Greetings heartily reciprocated." Per Canis, London, England. As this was addressed to the Royal Society St. George's, Edmonton, it gave proof that the city organization had become affiliated with the parent body and is under the patronage of H. M. the King and Queen. After a good deal of formal business a concert was held to which a number of members contributed.

The death occurred yesterday of the two children, aged seven and three years, of Mr. and Mrs. Smock of 131 Bellamy street. Diphtheria was the cause of death. Funeral today to the Edmonton cemetery.

F. R. F. McKirick has returned to Edmonton after five years' absence. Mr. McKirick, who has been with the Lethbridge Herald for over a year as subscription canvasser and travelling correspondent, will take an active interest in the Imperial Foundry Co., Ltd., of which he is president and his brother manager. From 1896 to 1905 he taught school in the district around Edmonton and has covered all southern Alberta for the Herald, so he is well acquainted with the country.

The Edmonton branch of the Women's Auxiliary of the Catholic Extension Society of Canada was organized Monday, April 25th, at a large and enthusiastic meeting of ladies in the convent on Victoria avenue. Over forty ladies were enrolled as members, and a number of others who have expressed their intention of joining the Auxiliary will be included in the membership roll in the next fortnight through the agency of the membership committee of young ladies appointed for this work. The pastors of the two city parishes—Rev. Fathers Nassen and LeMarchand—were present. Mrs. McKirick, who has been with the Lethbridge Herald for over a year as subscription canvasser and travelling correspondent, will take an active interest in the Imperial Foundry Co., Ltd., of which he is president and his brother manager. From 1896 to 1905 he taught school in the district around Edmonton and has covered all southern Alberta for the Herald, so he is well acquainted with the country.

M. K. Cowan Leaves G.T.R.

Montreal, April 27.—M. K. Cowan, K.C., of Montreal, has resigned as solicitor of the Grand Trunk Railway to enter the Toronto law firm of Beatty, Blackstock, Fasken and Chadwick. On May 1st Mr. Cowan will move from Montreal to Toronto, where he will reside.

LARGE INCREASE IN ASSESSMENT

Edmonton's Municipal Assessment
This Year will Probably Exceed $25,000,000 Mark.

The assessment rolls for Edmonton for 1910 will be completed on the last day of this month, and according to D. M. McMillan, the assessor, they will show that the assessed value of the city has increased about $200,000 since last year. The total municipal assessment last year was $23,569,470, so that this year's figures ought to reach well up to twenty-five and a half millions.

The assessment notices will be sent out in the next few days, those to the west of First street being posted on May 2nd, and those for the eastern part of the city being sent out on the 5th. As the court of revision will not sit until the middle of August, all those who have any appeals to make against their assessment will have lots of time to get their complaints in proper order.

T. W. Lines and R. H. Alexander returned from a business trip to England on Saturday.

Mrs. Z. T. Wood, wife of the R.N. W.M.P. deputy commissioner in the Yukon, left on Monday for the Coast after a visit of some weeks with Edmonton friends.

A. C. Fraser, manager of the Merchants Bank at Edmonton, was a visitor to the Monetary Times head office this week. He has been delegated by the Edmonton Board of Trade to inquire as to the best methods for securing new industries for that progressive Western city. Mr. Fraser arrived in Toronto in time to learn that the local city council had decided to abolish its department of industries and publicity, a step of which the Monetary Times disapproves. After visiting several cities and towns in Ontario, Mr. Fraser will gather information concerning publicity schemes carried on by Detroit, Grand Rapids, Chicago, Portland, New York and other cities. Edmonton in the past has chiefly concentrated its efforts upon attracting desirable settlers, and now intends to make a strong effort to secure new industries, two prominent possessions being large areas of coal and clay.

ONE HOTEL FOR NORTH EDMONTON

License Commissioners This Morning Decided Against the Application of Joseph Martell.

North Edmonton will not get another licensed hotel. The Board of License Commissioners at a meeting held in the council chamber this morning. The meeting was called for the purpose of considering an application of Joseph Martell for permission to open up a licensed hotel in North Edmonton near the packing plant. The application was refused on the grounds that the population of the suburb was not great enough yet to warrant the location of two hotels there.

A delegation headed by Mr. Fortune of the Moral Reform League was present, and urged on the board the question of population, stating that they had made a house to house canvass, and that their estimate of the population was correct. Joe Clarke presented the case for the applicant, and in asking that the license be granted, stated that the people of that community were in favor of the establishment of a second hotel. He also pointed out that the population was smaller now than it usually is, owing to the fact the packing plant is not employing as many men as is usually the case.

A KNIGHT FOR A DAY

B. C. Whitney's big production of the Smith-Hall musical play "A Knight for a Day," which Wm. Cranston brings to the Empire on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 5, 6, and 7, flashes with wit and vibrates with whistle melodies. It is embellished by some of the most striking ensembles and stage pictures that the noted wizard of stage-graft, Carl Schike, has yet devised and each number is demanded by the audience until the physical resources of the dancing girls and the vocal powers of the singers are all but exhausted. The cast includes the same clever people who presented the "Royal Chef," with a lot of new faces in the principle roles, and a general strengthening up all around.
